Introduction

February marked the fifth month of our fifth year of operations. The fund recorded $90.32 in net income for net PayPal donations received exceeding our monthly Digital Ocean invoice. As of our most recent quarterly update on December 31st, the Jason Fritz Memorial Endowment has a $1,060 spendable balance and a $17,953.41 permanently restricted balance whose earnings will be used to support future scholarships. Though investment statements from the Battle Creek Community Foundation shows that we have an all-time net loss on our investments of ($483.25), improving market conditions suggest that we might see the fund's first investment gains in excess of accumulated losses beginning in March 2024. This statement has not been generated to date but should be available within the next two weeks. The board would like to note that previous concerns about market volatility and inflation led us to retain some restricted donations in the form of cash. The permanently restricted balance of the endowment wil increase by an additional $1,298.71 following a transfer to the Battle Creek Community Foundation. Recent market returns suggest that it would now be in the fund's best interest to invest these dollars and capitalize on investment returns.

Positive news on investment returns notwithstanding, the 2023-2024 fiscal year is expected to follow the difficult trends seen during the 2023-2024 fiscal year for drum corps as a whole. An environment of high operating costs has led multiple ensembles to fold or forego a season, and said costs can reasonably be expected to factor into student tour fees. 2023's average tour fees generally ranged between $4,500 and $5,000 per student and resulted in the highest demand for scholarships in the fund's history. Based on the 30 applications we have received to date, average tour fees are $4,641. Open Class tuition averages $3,382 for the summer while World Class tuition averages $5,398. Lastly, inflation does not seem to be cooling in the manner that was predicted earlier this year. Annual inflation rose to 3.5% for March and operating costs for ensembles have not substantially decreased from peak inflation last year. That said, the Fund is still on pace for a normal year for scholarship applications with 25 valid applications received to date.

Lastly, on April 2nd, 2024, the Cadets Drum & Bugle Corps filed for chapter 7 bankruptcy in the wake of a sexual abuse lawsuit against the ensemble – a charge which cannot be dismissed and whose judgments all successor organizations to the corps would be subject. The Board would like to extend our heartfelt sympathy towards all victims of abuse in the drum corps activity as well as current members and alumni of the corps. While this news is unfortunate, the Board also believes that protecting member and staff welfare is the first and highest priority of any ensemble. We remain committed to this belief as a Board and are hopeful that ongoing efforts by DCI and its member corps will create a safer environment for all students going forward.

Program related expenses did not change during February. Administrative expenses are up $9.68 for our monthly Digital Ocean invoice and PayPal fees on donations received.

Restricted funds for the Jason Fritz Memorial Endowment are broken down as follows: $19,252.12 is permanently restricted as the corpus of the endowment and $1,060 remains invested as an opening spendable balance. Endowment earnings and losses are listed under the Investments category of the profit and loss statement. All unused funds at the end of the fiscal year are reinvested in the corpus of the endowment. All funds are managed in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States.
